Massive tree protest

Children, elders and thousands light candles to protest tree felling

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (MK&BCT)- Environmentalists, tree lovers, civic activists, farmers, residents and students came together in an emotional united protest last evening, mourning the felling of 40 trees along Hyder Ali Road — from the Kalikamba Temple to the SP Office Junction in Nazarbad.

As the sun set, citizens gathered around the chopped-off tree trunks not just to protest, but to grieve. Organised into small, disciplined groups, environmental supporters stood silently on both sides of the road, holding candles, flowers and placards.

The solemn candlelight vigil was a symbolic mourning of the trees killed. Trees that had for decades provided shade, oxygen and beauty to the stretch. The vigil began with participants placing white cloths and garlands of flowers on the tree stumps — now stark reminders of what was once a thriving green canopy.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

FROM COMPLAINT TO CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM: Prone to harbouring exaggerated expectations of perfection from others, we complain when things do not happen as per our reckoning. We find so many pretexts to complain about one deficiency or the other, both at home and outside.

At home, the stage when spouses start complaining to each other spells the beginning of deterioration in the relationship. The complaining tone does not sound pleasant. The habit of complaining sours the marital relationship. Complaints arise due to expectations of high standards from the other side. But we should ponder if we ourselves maintain such a high level of standards that we expect from the other side.

Outside the home, grievances do arise in the service sector for deficiencies which warrant complaints. Sometimes it is justified to lodge a complaint also. But giving feedback is preferable. Complaints have negativity about them, whereas feedback exudes positivity. By complaining we tend to berate a person; on the other hand, by giving feedback our intention is to bring about improvement.

Most businesses seek feedback in a bid to pre-empt complaints. After having flown a flight, you generally receive an email and text message from the airline urging you to give feedback.

Whenever I get my car serviced, the company sends mail and messages to get feedback from me. Banks have also started doing this.

This corporate and institutional culture of seeking feedback should be imbibed in our personal lives too. However, in the personal domain we have to give feedback on our own without the other person seeking it. Rather than jumping to complain in a harsh tone and with crude words, we should take a pause and proceed to give feedback in a neutral tone and polite words. Giving feedback will yield positive outcomes.

We need to change our mindset. Instead of rushing to complain, we should learn to provide feedback. Our tone changes for the better when we give feedback rather than complain. A complaint is a reaction; feedback is a response. Do not complain to your wife that she had put excessive salt in the dish in an intemperate tone; rather, give her feedback in a polite tone that the dish tasted of excessive salt.

We should learn both to give and receive feedback in a positive manner.—Chander Gupta in Deccan Herald

NEWS SPARKLERS

Tariff war causes spike in Trump toilet brush sales

Beijing: A Chinese-made toilet brush designed as a parody of American President Donald Trump has seen a massive spike in domestic sales as a result of the tit-for-tat tariff war between China and the US.

The yellow Trump toilet brush isn't new. It dates back to the US President's first term in office, when Chinese factories were churning out all sorts of Trump-themed products because of his popularity, both in China and in the US. A lot has changed since then, though, and today, many Chinese are buying the funny toilet brush as a way to ridicule the American President after he set massive commercial tariffs on Chinese goods. Chinese media is reporting a significant increase in Trump toilet brush sales as part of a trend called "Yiwu's counterattack".

Girlfriend on cruise gets bomb threat

Miami: A teen was recently convicted to eight months in prison for reporting a false bomb threat on a cruise ship to prevent his girlfriend from going on a cruise without him.

A few minutes after the Carnival Sunrise cruise left the port of Miami for Jamaica, Carnival Cruise Lines received an email was received: "Hey, someone might have a bomb on your sunrise cruise ship." This set in motion a security operation involving the US and Jamaican Coast Guard and the search of more than 1,000 rooms. After several hours of delay, the Sunshine was able to continue its journey to the Caribbean, but that wasn't the end of the story.

Authorities managed to trace the email to a 19-year-old man in Michigan who later admitted to reporting the false bomb threat, claiming that he was trying to prevent his girlfriend and her family from going on the cruise without him.

Relocation of existing trees: A suggestion

Sir,

This refers to your report titled 'Green carnage: 45 heritage trees felled,' published in Star of Mysore dated Apr. 13, 2025.

I am writing to you as a concerned resident of Mysuru.

It was a road with such shade-giving avenue trees that we enjoyed walking under during our college days. A seat on a stone bench under a rain tree was the ultimate air-conditioned effect back then!

In the light of the recent tree-felling, here I am sharing some information on tree transplantation facilities and companies engaged in this job.

Tree transplantation, or the relocation of existing trees, is a common practice for urban development, landscaping and environmental reasons. Services are available from various companies and costs can vary significantly based on tree size, species and other factors.

On speaking with the contact person Mr. Ilango from the company below, he stated that they can transplant trees aged even upto 300 years old: Jayam Tree Services, Head Office - Chennai, Jeyam Landscape Consultants, New No. 12, Old No. 44/2 Kandha Samy Street, Pallipattu, (Near Adyar), Chennai-600 113. # Funeral of trees?

Sir,

Reading the report about felling of over 40 old trees with rich foliage by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) on Hyder Ali Road, I went to see the crime spot.

To my surprise, there were a few cars parked with occupants looking at the scorched earth. I asked, what were they doing. Pat came the answer: We have come for the funeral and to pay our last respects. Om Shanti.

Doctor dies of cardiac arrest

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (RK&BCT)- Dr. Adarsh (36), a physician in the Emergency Medicine Department at JSS Hospital, Mysuru, tragically passed away from a sudden heart attack on Apr. 15. The incident occurred when he was with his wife and child.

Dr. Adarsh

Originally from Davanagere, Dr. Adarsh completed his medical studies at JSS Medical College and was serving at JSS Hospital. His wife, also a doctor, works in the Radiology Department at the same institution.

The tragedy struck while Dr. Adarsh was returning from Davanagere with his wife and their one-and-a-half-year-old child. While waiting for an autorickshaw at Mysuru's Sub-Urban bus stand at 7 am, he collapsed due to a cardiac arrest.

Despite his wife's immediate CPR efforts and the swift response of an ambulance, Dr. Adarsh could not be revived. He passed away around 2 pm.

His loss has deeply affected his colleagues, doctors and staff at JSS Hospital, who have mourned the passing of their peer. His mortal remains were shifted to Davanagere later that evening.

Massacre of Trees

What Govt. must do NOW

By Dr. Vishweshwaraiah Prakash, FRSC
Former CFTRI Director

After reading about the massacre of 40 heritage trees, I have been contemplating what can be done now, both short-term and long-term, for the past two days.

Dr. V. Prakash

To recall India's history, we know of the Jallianwala Bagh Massacre at Amritsar recorded as one of the treacherous acts of killing innocent humans during the British rule and it happened on Apr. 13, 1919. This tree cutting in the middle of night also happened on Apr. 13, 2025. A coincidence!?

This is a brutal act not only to the trees but also the birds which used to rest in their nests with their young ones in the night. Those trees never saw the sunrise of Apr. 13. Yesterday, having seen the trunks and branches of such huge trees, I was provoked to write about it. This report is to register my protest. This incident, with yesterday's (Apr. 18) silent candlelight march, must ensure the following assurance from the authorities concerned:

1. To put a stop to this project immediately for the way it has raised doubts and has spiked public wrath.

2. No tree or trees in Mysuru city and Greater Mysuru area be cut in future without due diligence and public consultation.

3. Quick enquiry within a week of this incident must be held by high-powered committee as per law and guilty punished.

4. The MCC with Forest Department, having given the permission to cut the trees, must immediately replace medium grown trees (within a fortnight) by tree transplanting from their own grown-up nursery trees (40 trees cut, 40 trees to be transplanted first).

5. Lastly organisations like Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) and Team Mysuru must identify the beautiful Boulevards of Mysuru in advance such as Adi Pampa Road, Krishnaraja Boulevard, Princess Road etc. Some of the new roads that have come up must be named as Heritage Roads inclusive of trees numbered and named with the age of the tree marked and it will prevent such incidents in future.

In closing, I would say: "If Mysuru matters for us we shall matter more to Mysuru."

CESC gears up to prevent rainy season electrical accidents

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (BCT)- As pre-monsoon showers began across several regions, Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) has taken proactive steps to prevent electrical accidents during rains. With strong winds and downpours expected in the coming weeks, CESC is ramping up safety awareness and preparedness efforts across all five districts under its jurisdiction.

CESC Chairman and MLA Rameshbabu Bandisiddegowda has directed officials to implement critical precautionary measures to ensure public safety and prevent electricity-related incidents. In line with this directive, local officers and field staff have been mobilised to swiftly respond to any disruptions or dangers caused by inclement weather. CESC's preparedness and public co-operation can significantly reduce risk of electrical hazards during rainy season.

"CESC is fully committed to ensure uninterrupted power supply and safeguard the public during the monsoon season. Consumers' safety is our top priority," said K.M. Munigopal Raju, In-charge Managing Director of CESC, in a press release.

CESC has urged citizens to remain vigilant and follow safety guidelines during spells of heavy rain and gusty winds.

24x7 Helpline

In case of electrical emergencies, public may report the incident through 24x7 helpline 1912 or via WhatsApp - 94489-91912, preferably with photos.

Precautionary guidelines

- Avoid touching broken or fallen power lines.
- Do not dry clothes on electric poles or wires.
- Keep livestock away from electric poles and transformers.
- Stay clear of transformers, especially during rain and windy weather.

Protest to Protect

Last evening, thousands of Mysureans gathered for a candlelight march, mourning the loss of 40 majestic trees, each over 70 years old, felled overnight along a short 300-metre stretch of Hyder Ali Road.

Will this move the authorities? Unlikely. But it will make them think twice next time. That alone makes the protest matter.

But where are our political leaders in all this? Strangely silent.

There's more to this tree-felling than meets the eye.

For context, most Mysureans know that Hyder Ali Road runs from the SP Office, past Nexus Mall, through Gandhinagar and beside St. Philomena's College, ending at Ambedkar Circle.

Now, if the authorities truly intend to widen the entire Hyder Ali Road, did they obtain permission to partly demolish the temple, mosque, cemetery and Philomena's College — structures that sit along the same stretch?

No. They didn't.

So, why cut down trees? especially without clearing the more legally and politically sensitive obstacles?

In an attempt to justify this, an MCC (Mysuru City Corporation) executive engineer claimed that most people have misunderstood the alignment of Hyder Ali Road.

According to his version, it begins at the SP Office, veers onto the JP Fortune Palace Hotel Road, then turns onto Mysuru-Bengaluru Road towards the Fountain Circle.

Even if that's true, did they get permission to cut into the Police Academy compound? Or alter Nazarbad Mosque, Good Shepherd School, Philomena's Hostel or the MysoreOne Office?

Again, no.

So, the question remains: Why were the trees cut first in such a hurry?

This has given weight to the rumour that the trees were sacrificed to create parking and a wider road which could help get clearance for extra floors to some upcoming commercial constructions at the end of the road.

What else explains why only a 300-metre section was cleared, when the full road stretches over three kilometres — and the remaining stretch is lined with religious sites, schools, shops and homes, all legal nightmares to demolish and politically sensitive?

The unfortunate reality could be that there may be and never was a real plan to widen the entire Hyder Ali Road. The Comprehensive Development Plan (CDP) is simply being used as a fig leaf.

Meanwhile, the tragic irony is that no political party — ruling or opposition — took a vociferous stand. Not one.

In Karnataka, when it comes to real estate, all parties are allies. They quietly allow each other to destroy lakes, fell trees and level hills. And they all look the other way, with no serious plan on conservation. Oh! But they do have advice…

"Drink water even if you're not thirsty." This was actually told to us last year by our State Government!

As layouts expand and construction booms, more trees will fall and Mysuru will go the way of Bengaluru — Hotter, drier, unliveable.

Even more disheartening than the politicians' absence at the protest was the reaction from some so-called 'intellectuals.'

I received a flood of e-mails from both sides of the political spectrum.

On the Left, Modi critics sent clippings about trees being cut for the Prime Minister's visits. On the Right, Rahul Gandhi detractors sent news of forests cleared under Congress rule in Telangana and old reports about trees cut in Mysuru during Rajiv Gandhi's visit.

To all of them, I ask: Is the value of a tree now to be judged through the lens of which political party cuts it?

Where is the intellect in an intellectual? And what is the logic here? That, because trees were cut for Modi's visit, so it is okay to cut trees when Siddaramaiah is CM?

The environment is not a BJP Vs Congress issue. It's not about Modi or Rahul. It's about us, Mysureans, our shared future and our home.

To those who need a reminder of what silence leads to, I offer these words from Pastor Martin Niemöller, a daring critic of Hitler:

"First, they came for the socialists, and I did not speak out — because I was not a socialist.

Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out — because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for me — and there was no one left to speak for me."

If you don't speak up now, there may be no Mysuru left to defend tomorrow.

So, protest — not because you're on the Left or Right. Protest because you're a Mysurean. This is your home. Protect it.

Last evening a politician told me, "Star of Mysore has turned Mysureans into habitual protestors."*

I say: "As long as law-makers make, breaking the law a habit, we'll make protesting a habit. When they kick their habit, we'll gladly kick ours."

If Mysuru is to be PROTECTED, then Mysureans must PROTEST.

Son of late underworld don Muthappa Rai shot at

Ricky Rai hospitalised; Incident at Bidadi farmhouse; FIR against four persons

Ramanagara, Apr. 19 (BCT)- Ricky Rai, son of the late underworld don N. Muthappa Rai, was allegedly shot at by unidentified assailants near his residence in Bidadi, Ramanagara district. According to reports, Rai is currently receiving treatment at Manipal Hospital in Bengaluru.

The attack occurred between 1 am and 1.30 am (late Friday night) while Ricky was travelling from Bidadi to Bengaluru in his car. Police reported that the assailants opened fire, with a bullet striking the vehicle. Ricky, seated in the rear of the car alongside his gunman, was injured when the bullet pierced through the driver's seat.

The car in which Rai was travelling.

Ricky, a real estate businessman, had just returned from Russia two days earlier. As he left his fortified farmhouse, shots were fired through a gap in the compound wall of a nearby private property. The attack occurred just 200 metres from the gate of his residence.

Ricky, who also resides in Sadashivanagar, had arrived at his Bidadi home around 7.30 pm After some rest, he left around midnight to return to Bengaluru. Moments after departing, gunfire erupted.

FIR against four

Though Ricky usually drove himself, he was seated in the back seat of the car that night, accompanied by his bodyguard. Following the attack, Ricky's driver filed a complaint, leading to an FIR against four individuals: Rakesh Malli, Anuradha, Nitesh Shetty and Vaidhyanathan. Ricky had previously received multiple death threats, the Police said.

Preliminary investigations suggest the shooter had been hiding behind a cement wall across the road, waiting for Rai's vehicle. Police suspect the attacker positioned the weapon through a large hole in the compound wall before opening fire.

Investigators believe the attack was meticulously planned and are considering the possibility of an insider's involvement, as the attackers appeared to be aware of Ricky Rai's movements.

A cartridge was found inside the car during the investigation. The bullet reportedly travelled from the driver's side to the back seat, where Ricky was seated. The driver, Basavaraj, ducked and narrowly avoided injury, while Ricky was struck in the back seat.

Ramanagara SP reacts

"A shotgun was used in the attack. One person sustained serious injuries, while another suffered minor injuries. Both will be questioned to gather more information," said Srinivas Gowda, Superintendent of Police, Ramanagara District.

"According to the driver's statement, it appears that only one round was fired. Scene of Crime Officers and Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) teams have collected multiple samples from the crime scene. Further details will emerge after their report," he added.

While initial findings suggest the incident may be linked to a business dispute, Police have not ruled out other motives and are interrogating all of Rai's and his family's contacts.

Muthappa Rai, Ricky's father, began his career as a local bank employee but later became involved in crime after opening a cabaret joint on Brigade Road in Bengaluru. Rai gained notoriety in 1989 after ambushing and killing rival gangster MP Jayaraj. Muthappa Rai passed away on May 15, 2020, after a battle with brain cancer.

Raghu Kautilya's books 'Bhoomi Putri,' 'Ankanada Belaku' released

FROM LEFT: R. Raghu's son and Nypunya School of Excellence Secretary Kautilya, Nypunya School Chairman R. Raghu, Vidushi Dr. Shambavi Swamy, guest of honour Komala Harshakumar Gowda, MP Yaduveer Wadiyar, Theatre person Dr. B. Jayashree, noted academician Dr. Gururaj Karajagi, Raghu's daughter Judge Varnika, journalist Ithichanda Ramesh Uthappa and Nypunya Principal Mahendra seen releasing the books 'Bhoomi Putri' and 'Ankanada Belaku' at Kalamandira.

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (SBD&BS)- Two books authored by R. Raghu Kautilya, BJP leader and the Chairman of Nypunya School of Excellence, were released at a programme titled 'Nirmala Nenapu,' at Kalamandira in the city yesterday.

Raghu, who is also the President of State BJP OBC Morcha, has penned 'Bhoomi Putri,' an anthology of short poems in memory of his wife Nirmala, which was released by noted theatre person Dr. B. Jayashree.

Another book 'Ankanada Belaku,' a collection of his series of columns published in Mysuru Mithra newspaper, a sister publication of Star of Mysore, was released by noted academician Dr. Gururaj Karajagi, at a programme organised under the banner of Nypunya School of Excellence.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar inaugurated the programme and lauded the efforts of Raghu for finding time to pen the books, amid his busy schedule.

"Raghu has written several columns on erstwhile Mysore province too. Even though I am unable to pore over the books being released, the event itself speaks in volume of their good content," said Yaduveer Wadiyar.

Theatre person Jayashree recited a song of Rashtrakavi Dr. G.S. Shivarudrappa 'Ninage Bere Hesaru Beke Stree Andare Ashte Saake...,' asserting the work a woman does despite being ill-treated. But the patriarchal society never treats her with love, she rued.

"True to her mother's wish, Nirmala's daughter has become a Judge. Had she been alive today, she would have cuddled her daughter in joy," she said.

Academician Dr. Gururaj Karajagi said, Nirmala is being remembered under the pretext of book release, but even before knowing Raghu, several teacher-friends of mine had told me about the motherly qualities of Nirmala.

"It is wrong to portray a woman as abale (weak) as she can endure much pain unlike men, as is evident with anecdotes mentioned in several mythological stories. The extent of love, a wife showers on her husband, is impossible by a husband. Being born and brought up elsewhere, she spends her lifetime, having a profound faith in her husband," said Dr. Gururaj Karajagi.

Journalist Ithichanda Ramesh Uthappa, who spoke about the books said, Raghu, with his endearing style of writing, has himself cleared the doubts many had about his literary ability. The influence of Gokak Movement and thespian actor Dr. Rajkumar can be largely felt in the columns of Raghu.

Raghu, who turned emotional, remembering his wife Nirmala, said that the programme is not just a commemorative event, but has been dedicated to women who, as an epitome of Indian culture, discharge their duties for the cause of their husbands and children.

Speaking about the former Congress MLA Harshakumar Gowda's wife, who was on the stage, Raghu said, "Komala was the force behind her husband late Harshakumar Gowda becoming an MLA. Being an associate of Gowda, I came into politics and was nurtured by Komala like Yashoda and forged an alliance with Nirmala."

"Like Sita in Ramayana, Nirmala became the reason for my rise from the scratch. As I was busy handling COVID-19 pandemic related responsibilities, I couldn't lend my ears to Nirmala, who was often complaining about her back pain. Like how it turned to be the last moments of actor Puneeth Rajkumar, Nirmala, who boarded the car on her own to a hospital, bid adieu to life in no time," he rued.

Komala Harshakumar Gowda, Vidushi Dr. Shambavi Swamy, Raghu's son Kautilya, daughter Varnika, Principal of Nypunya School Mahendra and others were present.

Punyakoti Dance Ballet

Earlier, a 40-minute dance ballet titled 'Punyakoti' was staged under the direction of Dr. Shambavi Swamy. It was followed by a musical evening by noted singer Sangeetha Katti. The songs penned by R. Raghu were presented in an audio-visual format, with noted TV anchor Divya Alur designing the concept, with music scored by Manasa Holla and recitation of songs by Adarsha and Aditya.

Massive tree protest in city

Fight for life, clean air

Candles were lit beside each felled tree and silence filled the air as protesters sat quietly on the road in contemplation, sorrow, and solidarity. For those present, it was not just about trees — it was about the fight for life, clean air, and Mysuru's identity.

Following the vigil, the crowd staged a silent protest march from the SP Office Junction to the Kalikamba Temple. They carried powerful placards that read: "Stop Tree Cutting," "Clean City, Green City," "Say No to Projects That Harm the Environment," and "We must Ensure Clean Air, Water, and Food for Our Children and Grandchildren."

More than 20 organisations lent their support to the protest, including Parisara Balaga, Mysore Grahakara Parishat, People's Union for Civil Liberties, Team Mysuru Foundation, Let's Do It Mysore, Yuva Brigade, Youth for Seva, Arya Vaishya Abhivruddhi Samithi, Kannadada Kannadi, Mysore Hridayavanta Kannadigara Balaga, Prakruthi Vakeelara Thanda, Rashtriya Brashtachara Nirmoolane Karyacharane Samithi, Karnataka State Farmers Welfare Association, Mysore Cycling Club, Mysore Athletic Club, Humanities Relief Society, Progressive Fighters and the Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha.

Their presence turned what could have been a quiet mourning into a powerful show of public solidarity.

The protest was not limited to environmental organisations. It drew widespread participation from civil society, highlighting the growing public outrage. In the words of one protester: "This is not just about 40 trees. This is about the soul of Mysuru."

Children, students, women and elders stood side by side, wearing black headbands to mark their silent resistance. The protest cut across caste, creed and class, showing Mysuru's environment as a shared heritage and a shared responsibility.

Politics enters protest venue, environmentalists push back

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (MK&BCT)- Various environmental organisations had called for a solemn candlelight tribute to the 40 felled trees, an event attended by Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa.

Speaking to the media during the gathering, the MLA stressed that the protest was free of political motives and said that everyone had come together to condemn the Government's action. He demanded the arrest of those responsible for the tree felling.

However, some participants expressed their displeasure, urging the MLA not to speak during the silent protest. They asked that any statements be made after the event concluded.

This led to a brief exchange of words, with a few leaders accompanying the MLA defending his remarks while others insisted that such comments were inappropriate during a silent vigil. The disagreement escalated into a heated argument before the situation was brought under control.

Despite the friction, the MLA and his team later joined the candlelight march, holding candles and chanting slogans. Environmentalists, however, criticised the disruption, reiterating that the protest was meant to remain apolitical and united in spirit. They stressed the need to follow the agreed-upon rules and preserve the dignity of the vigil.

Hidden agendas, lack of accountability spark public outrage

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (BCT)- The shocking overnight felling of 40 trees along Hyder Ali Road last Sunday has left Mysuru's citizens furious and demanding answers.

Authorities claim the move was for "road widening and development." The width of the road is not 30 feet but 50 feet. But the reckless haste and lack of transparency have only deepened suspicions.

Shockingly, even officials seem clueless about basic details — no one can confirm the exact stretch of Hyder Ali Road, with conflicting claims ranging from FTS Circle to the SP Office. They even seem to be unaware of the road's exact width. The road is already 50 feet width.

Some point fingers at the Mysuru City Corporation's Planning Department, while others pin blame on Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), exposing a glaring lack of coordination and accountability.

The absence of elected Corporators is taken advantage by corrupt bureaucrats and politicians to indulge in this kind of anti-people road works.

Public opinion must be sought before cutting trees: MP

Mysuru, Apr. 19 (MK&BCT)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Wadiyar has strongly condemned the large-scale felling of trees, calling it unacceptable in the name of development.

The MP voiced his full support for the citizen-led campaign, describing the incident as a "tree massacre." He emphasised that development must go hand-in-hand with environmental protection and called for sustainable alternatives.

"Under no circumstances should trees be cut down. If necessary, alternative solutions must be explored," he stated.

Yaduveer also insisted that environmental experts be consulted and public opinion be sought before any such decision is made. He called for a specific date to be fixed for public feedback, with due notice and time for participation.

"Mysuru's natural beauty and cultural heritage must not be sacrificed for short-sighted development. I stand with the people and environmentalists in this fight," he said.

WORD OF THE DAY

Pugnacious

Pronunciation: pug-NAY-shus (Adjective)
Meaning: Someone described as pugnacious shows a readiness or desire to fight or argue.
Origin: Pugnacious individuals are often looking for a fight. While unpleasant, at least their fists are packing an etymological punch. Pugnacious comes from the Latin verb pugnare (meaning "to fight"), which in turn comes from the Latin word for "fist," pugnus. Another Latin word related to pugnus is pugil, meaning "boxer." Pugil is the source of our word pugilist, which means "fighter" and is used especially of professional boxers. Pugnare has also given us impugn ("to assail by words or arguments"), oppugn ("to fight against"), and repugnant (which is now used primarily in the sense of "exciting distaste or aversion," but which has also meant "characterized by contradictory opposition" and "hostile").
Example: "While looking through the Perkins telescope [at Saturn] one night, a pugnacious 10-year-old commented, 'Hey! I only see one ring. Rip off!'" —Tom Burns, The Delaware (Ohio) Gazette, 23 Oct. 2024.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Rome Was Not Built in a Day

Meaning: When you say 'Rome Was Not Built in a Day' you mean that something is going to take time to complete.
Origin: The origin of expression 'Rome was not built in a day' is an ancient one, attesting to fact that it takes time to create things that are worthwhile. One of the first examples was published in France sometime around 1190.
Example: "I heard you're writing a book. When will it be finished?" Answer: "Sometime next year. After all, Rome was not built in a day!"
